Philadelphia General Electric strike, 1946

PERMANENT ID:
11602

DATE:
March 1, 1946

IMAGE DESCRIPTION:
Two photographs from the United Electric workers General Electric strike in Philadelphia, which lasted from January to the beginning of March, 1946. Image 1 is a photograph showing a group of men carrying two American flags and a hand-drawn sign reading "G.E. cannot run Phila.," walking out of City Hall. Image 2 is of the same group, having progressed further down the stairs.

This digital record contains two images that depict two photographs from folder 4729 (labeled as: "Strikes--Philadelphia--Electrical Workers--General Electric--1946").

ADDRESS:
Philadelphia

FORMAT:
Photographs

DIMENSIONS:
Width: 21 cm, Height: 25.5 cm

ARTIST:
General Electric Company; United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers of America; Philadelphia Record