Brother Jonathan Administering a Salutary Cordial to John Bull political cartoon, 1813

PERMANENT ID:
11819

CALL NUMBER:
Bb 612 B 795.1

LANGUAGE:
English

DATE:
1813

IMAGE DESCRIPTION:
This early American political cartoon depicts "Brother Jonathan," a symbolic representation of the United States, forcing a mug of fermented pear juice, or perry (a pun on the name of US naval hero Oliver Hazard Perry), down the throat of "John Bull," a symbolic representation of Great Britain. At far right, as a naval battle is depicted in the background.

FORMAT:
Etchings; Engravings; Watercolors; Political cartoons

DIMENSIONS:
Width: 28 cm, Height: 45 cm

PUBLISHER:
Historical Society of Pennsylvania
ARTIST:
Doolittle, Amos, 1754-1832; Doolittle, Amos, 1754-1832; Unknown; Moloshok, Rachel; Moloshok, Rachel; Historical Society of Pennsylvania; Perry, Oliver Hazard, 1785-1819