Benjamin Franklin letter to John Ross, 1765

PERMANENT ID:
13712

DATE:
June 8, 1765

IMAGE DESCRIPTION:
A letter written by Benjamin Franklin while residing in London, to fellow revolutionary John Ross (1726-1800). Franklin begins the letter by giving Ross his condolences and congratulations on his current bout of gout, of which Franklin has had much experience. He then shares his initial reaction to the destruction of property during the Stamp Act Riots.

This digital record contains three images that depict one letter, the entire contents of folder "pg. 10".

ADDRESS:
London

FORMAT:
Correspondence